My Dear Kirk

In reference to
my last I find that D<sup>r</sup> Birdwood can not say more till
he has seen the Governor and that
will probably be
between the 15th & 20th
curr - He complains
of getting worse
so I think is not likely to stay long
in this country -

[0002]

I gave you as fair
an account as I
could of the advantages
and disadvantages
of the situation (if offered) I would take it only as a stepping
stone if nothing
better offers - I think that the practice would
in time surpass any thing in a country
town but I dont know much in that line - If the Governor invites you I suppose he would do you a good turn

[0003]

if opportunity offered
afterwards but this is merely conjecture -

I am in daily
expectation of others
to embark on the Thule
by which ship I am to go but probably the Governor will come
about 13th & give
the necessary orders
to sail - I am very
tired of doing nothing

The Africans who
came with me have
lost the peculiar odour
and now emit the
peculiar Indian mousey
or aloetic smell !!

[0004]

I have observed it ever since my return and
they complain of
weakness - The Arabs
imbibe the African
odour on the continent & you remember what we imbibed at Kongone -

Grant has been feasted
at Calcutta - Scotchmen
predominate there as well as here and all are pretty clannish - no
news from the coast
for a long time - the weather is now cool & pleasant
here - but I wish I were away to my work

Very Affecty yours

David Livingstone
