My Dear Sir
Accept of my hearty thanks for your kind congratulations
I remember
you very well
Met M^r Mackenzie
the other day in the street quite

[0002]

accidentally. I am sure I was glad to see him. Have corresponded with Hoskins and Beding
field but have not met them. I shall always remember
you of the Thilomel
with kindly feelings
Have heard nothing of Dallas was that the name of [0003]

first lieut^t I have no time to spare in England. Am at close work over a book and when that is over will leave for East Africa. 110 men like those you saw awaiting return

in April. I need not say I would like to see you
for I can recieve

[0004]
no one till after my work is finished I lost my father in ~~August~~[February] last - and can sympathize with you. This is written at a moment of relaxation - Notes I generally must leave unnoticed
I wish I were away again. May God bless you

David Livingstone
