My dear W.

Whoever sends the food will man the Galzo if you will not use it I shall - but I suspect you misunderstand
the matter -

If the Governor does not recieve something more stiff from his own Gov^t than from me in the Cape papers I am mistaken. We would like Rowley to say he on the spot can say nothing on the merits. I shall bear it all myself however like a Briton. Something will come of it nothing like kicking up a dust on these subjects

David Livingstone
